- 14% of Rwanda
- lighter complexion,
- mixed African & European
- taller

up to one million killed in 3 months in 1994

Long ago, Rwanda and Burundi were one nation. The Hutu and Tutsi lived here.

Hutus vs. Tutsis

- The Hutus were the majority – around 85%. But they were considered commoners.
- The Tutsis were the minority – around 14%. But they were considered the elite, ruling class because of their large estates, large number of servants, and large number of cattle.

Physical Appearance

- Because the Hutus and Tutsis did not usually intermarry, their offspring began to develop similarities in their features.
- The Tutsis were often very tall, thin, with narrow features, and fair skin.
- The Hutus were often shorter, stronger, with broader features, and darker skin.

WARNING!

- Human rights groups warn the international community of an impending genocide.
- In March of 1994, the human rights groups are forced to flee Rwanda due to the impending calamity. Only the Red Cross stays behind.
